PREFACE

At the beginning, Bulletin of Marine Geology (BoMG) was meant to publicize Marine Geological Institute of Indonesia (MGI) research results. Nowadays, due to addition of marine renewable energy and many contributions by external authors either from Indonesia or abroad; BoMG expands the scope, areas and researches published by the Bulletin. The expansion accommodates wider scope themes related to marine geoscience and its application.

The 2019's year second edition presents the first paper Review of Submarine Landslides in the Eastern Indonesia Region by MGI. The second paper Assessing Heavy Metals Contamination in Suspended Particulate Matter in Jakarta Bay, by Research Center for Oceanography and Research Center for Deep Sea, Indonesian Institute for Sciences (LIPI). The third paper Genesis and Morphotectonic Characterisation of Crescent-Shaped feature from Alcock Rise, Andaman Sea by Marine and Coastal Survey Division, Geological Survey of India. The fourth paper Characteristic of Shallow Subsurface Quaternary Sediment in Nongsa Isle, Part of Putri Islands, Batam, Based on Georadar Data Interpretation by collaboration between Center for Geological Survey and MGI. And the fifth paper Identification of Quaternary Sediments and the Existence of Biogenic Gas Sources in the Topang Delta, Meranti, Riau by MGI. The editors appreciate the valuable contribution of the authors for this edition.
